The Masculine Mandate | FamilyLife®

By Richard D. Phillips. I come from a cavalry family, as in horse soldiers. My great grandfather was a cavalry scout in the frontier West. My grandfather commanded the Army's last horse cavalry regiment (in 1938, believe it or not). At that point, our family switched from horses to tanks, and both my father and I served as tank officers. Of all the great cavalry movies, none holds a dearer ...
